In seeking a theme for your 1956 Crossroads, the staff found that sometimes even the most obvious is overlooked. Above the main entrance to Brighton High School are four sculpture pieces, each symbolic of a specific aspect of life. We have taken the liberty of naming and interpreting each sculpture in an effort to choose the most appropriate one to represent each of this yearbook's four main sections. The first, FAMILY, represents the Class Section. The second, THE ARTS, describes the Activities Section. The third, CAREERS, represents the Senior Section, and the fourth, STRENGTH, the Sports Section.

ADMINISTRATION

This year brought Brighton several major changes in the school administration. Brighton High students have welcomed Mr. Leonard B. Smith, new principal, who accepted the chair vacated by Mr. Arthur E. Harris. Congratulations also go to Miss Marion Handel, who moved to the vice-principal's office, taking the place of Francis E. Davies. Mr. Davies left Brighton High to become principal of the Brighton Elementary School.

Mrs. Jane O'Brien and Mrs. Christine Raymond

Miss Marian Phillips

Seniors became acquainted with Mr. Robert Collins, Brighton's new guidance director, but before they could fully harass him with college problems, he took a leave of absence for further study at Syracuse University, leaving Mr. Arthur Chapin to temporarily cope with senior admission problems. To our new administration, good luck and best wishes for a long, happy, and successful reign.

When a high school student reaches his senior year, he is confronted with the problem of choosing a career. He must know his ultimate goals in life, so that he can wisely seek employment or decide what courses of study to pursue in college.

Because CAREER is so important a factor in the senior's life, it becomes the keynote of this senior section.

The fine music and art departments of Brighton High School, as well as the related extracurricular activities, have exposed many Brighton students to a cultural atmosphere. Numerous Brighton clubs and organizations stress the humanistic aspects of their programs. Accordingly, THE ARTS is the dominant feature of the activities section.

Cotton candy, movies, games of chance -- even a swami at the Student Council Fair

Looking over STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION records for the past school year, one finds evidence of a successful term in the number of accomplishments. Teachers honored for twenty-five years of service were awarded silver pins and scrolls, and were entertained at a tea. The Council voted to honor Edward Reifsteck, past head of the physical education department, by erecting a flagpole to his memory, at the end of Reifsteck Field.

A successful fair raised money to support Brighton's foreign adoptee, Eve Ojala, and to purchase jackets for the newly organized Safety Council.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IN ACTION

BACK: Friedlander, Drees, Kaiser, Mack, Crawford, Sparklin, Speegle, Belknap.
FRONT: Tallmadge, Trost, Halaby, Kaltreider.

Ammerding the constitution, the Council made the vice principal in charge of student activities permanent Council advisor, and each class president an ex officio member of the Council.

An all-school service project, sponsored by the Student Council, was the collection of used clothing for the Baden Street Settlement. The Council also took over the Lost and Found Department this year, setting it up in the Student Center.

Student Council has had a highly successful school year through the cooperation and encouragement of Brighton High Students.

STANDING: DeZeng, Carter, Hershberger, Sgt. Snyder. SEATED: Allen, Miss Phillips, Mr. Gibson, Mrs. Blair, Heller.

Would-be vandals beware! Jim Speegle and Peter Noce are watching you! As chairman and recording secretary of the STUDENT SESSION, Jim and Peter faced problems concerning the behavior of Brighton students. Although recommending no actual punishments, the Session proved effective. Additional Session members were selected each time from the student body on the basis of their familiarity with the problem.

STUDENT SESSION. Jim Speegle, chairman; Peter Noce, recording secretary.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY set a record for size this year with thirty-five members. Because the Society's main objective is service, checking coats and selling baked goods occupied a good share of the member's time. During football season, B.H.S. pennants were sold to swell the N.H.S. scholarship fund, while a successful Christmas Seal drive netted over $300. Heading the society for the first half year was Stuart Bless, with Alan Bush wielding the gavel the second half.

Liebhardt, Roby buy N.H.S. pennants from salesmen, Bush and Crawford.

"MACBETH" CAST.

TOP ROW: Lebedecker, Germann, Borisoff, Plant, Levine, Fairchild, Friedlander, Noce, Kretchman, Francis. SECOND: Roberts, Shestack, MacNab, Biscop. FIRST: Kappleman, Dacks, Schwartzman, Edgell, Leichtner, Lewis, Smith.

A new phase in Brighton dramatics was Shakespeare's "Macbeth", which played on our stage for three nights, drawing students from all over the Rochester area.

Craig MacNab played the lordly and cruel Macbeth, while Betty Biscop depicted the scheming Lady Macbeth. Banquo, trusted friend of Macbeth, who is eventually killed by Macbeth's hired murderers, was played by Tony Fairchild. Alan Shestack swung his just and righteous sword as Macduff.

One point which worried the "Macbeth" cast concerned the scene in which Macduff slays Macbeth and swings his head on a sword point. Both Craig and his fellow actors wondered if Craig would carry his head at the final curtain.

Adviser Knoke ponders a dramatic question.

Leads Shestack, Biscop, MacNab, and Fairchild rehearse lines.

Witches Kappleman, Dacks, Dickman brew mischief.

THESPIANS

STANDING: Leichtner, Borisoff, MacNab, Heller. FOURTH: Humes, Berger, Kaiser, Friedlander, Rector, Reed, Biscop. THIRD: Holt, Schubert, Rotenberg, Breese, Smith, Warren. SECOND: Yates, Kelley, Sparklin, Shestack, Cleveland, Kende.

Heading the 1094 THESPIAN troupe was Alan Shestack, president; with Mary Ann Sparklin, vice president; Carin Breese, treasurer; and Mark Friedlander, keeper-of-the-book.

Almost twenty students, who had earned the necessary fifteen points by participation in dramatic productions, became members of National Thespians Society at the spring and fall inductions. In the fall, following the traditional Thespians dinner onstage, the new members presented a skit depicting outstanding events in the lives of famous people. Although hissed and heckled by an audience of veteran members, these "budding" actors proved their worth by simply ignoring the audience.

Thespians dramatists Borisoff, MacNab, Shestack, Sparklin, and Kelley.

With a barrel (representing a lighthouse) for scenery, Thespians members set out to test the ingenuity of B.H.S. students in the presentation of "The Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter." A narrator read the parts while actors pantomimed the actions.

With the introduction of movies shown in the auditorium during lunch periods, STAGE CREW members tackled a new job. Their duties included working the lights and setting up the screen for each showing. President Jon Francis and his crew erected sets for Thespians and Harlequin plays, Senior Production, and the P.T.A. Revue.

HARLEQUINS

TOP ROW: Berger, Noble, Boughton, Dacks, Bowie, Karsh, Kimmel, Miller, Criticos, Teegardin, Kappleman, Roberts, Sanford, Heinrich, Kayser, Boon, Wattenberg, Zissler, Fromer, Wilson, Carr, O'Brien, Bower. FIFTH: Ferraro, Steinberg, Silverman, Frumkes, Wilcove, Curro, Edgell, DeHond, Barbara Allen, Kirkham, Densmore, Eckberg, Shick, Betty Allen, Holden. FOURTH: Weiser, Labowitz, Epner, Friedman, Bless, Fergeson, DeLaney, Moseson, Lewis, Smith, Berlove, LeFevre, Mulivor, Kaiser. THIRD: Lipton, Epstein, Stern, Berman, Katz, Rosen, Shencup, Payne, Levine, Rock, Katus, Strumph, Messinger, Kende, Warren. SECOND: Shineman, Clarridge, Atkin, Lipsky, Gans, Schwartzman, Klupt, Gitlin, Klig, Singer, Goldblatt, DuBois, Yates. FIRST: Weisman, Jedd, Steensma, Itkin, Litten, Cohen, Epner, Bakeman, Wolf, Barley, Dean.

Demonstrations by Paul Knoke on stage acting comprised the majority of HARLEQUIN meetings this season. As adviser of the club, Mr. Knoke discussed movement on stage, character representation, stage voice, and stage make-up. Linda Warren wielded the gavel as President. Working with her were Lynn Kende, Vice President, and Ginny Yates, secretary-treasurer. As in the past years, Harlequin members helped to present each play by working backstage and in the dressing rooms, painting posters, ushering, and selling tickets.

An all women cast monopolized Brighton's stage in the fall when Harlequins presented "Twelve Angry Women". "Guilty" or "not guilty" was the theme of this mystery melodrama. The entire play occurred in a jury room, where the jurors, ranging from poor broken-down slum women to snobbish Fifth Avenue socialites, decided whether a boy should live or die. Alix Cleveland and Maryellen Humes clashed as two jurors with different points of view.

Weiner, Presberg, Scruggs, Snow, Miller, Steinhausen, Choice, Farrow, Salitan.

Buff, Ellowitch, Sloman, Norry, Smith, Pierce, Hockhauser, Purves, Gitlin.

The story of "Heidi", the Swiss mountain girl, was the first three act play to be given by the JUNIOR PLAYERS. Under the direction of Miss Mary Ann DeLaura, the play featured Connie Farrow as Heidi and Steve Buff as the grandfather.

"The Drunkard" Cast; Beers, Kaltreider, Jackson, Platt, Rosenthal, Dalbey.

"An Old Time Revue" with parts adapted from "The Drunkard" found Brighton seniors out in full force to back their SENIOR PRODUCTION.

"I have lived a villain, a villain let me die," cried Tom Dalbey, playing Edward Middleton, a man who succumbed to the influence of liquor. As his wife, Elie Rosenthal believed in him and prayed for his return. While Edward drowned his sorrows in drink, Lawyer Cribbs, Jerry Leichtner, attempted to steal his wife.

As in real life, justice and good won out and everything ended well, not only for the actors but also for the seniors.

Seniors step to "Soft Shoe" rhythm.

"No, No, a Thousand Times, No!"

"Prologue" describes fair maiden's plight.

"Gin and whiskey will spoil your life."

Atmosphere of Old Spain and Mexico delighted SPANISH CLUB when Mrs. Wojnowski and former president, Carol Carter, showed their slides of these countries. When Christmas time rolled around, the "senors" and "senoritas" sang Christmas carols with "gusto", and wished each other "feliz navidad." Jose Calvos, a Spanish exchange student, was a highlight of the Christmas party as he played his guitar and sang popular Spanish songs, much to the delight of the girls.

The climax of the year came with the gay Spanish banquet, where members ate and sang in the true Spanish fashion.

CROSSROADS STAFF

STANDING: Cameros, Mendelson, Kretchman, Shestack, Lazeroff, Liner, Haines, Gregg, Fromer.
FRONT: Kelley, Gordon, Milliman, Sparklin, Armstrong.

A great many worries confronted this staff and, perhaps, they discovered failure on some first attempts. Ultimately, though, they found success with the 1956 CROSSROADS.

Stanley Gordon as Editor-in-Chief gave the orders and saw that they were carried out. Working closely with him were his assistants: Alan Shestack, Associate editor; Maryellen Humes, Activities Editor; Linda Lazeroff, Class and Senior editor; Peggy Kelley, Girl's Sports editor; John Milliman, Sports editor; and Graham Kretchman, Chief Photographer.

Stuart Bless, Business Manager, was responsible for keeping account of all publication money. Stu also headed the soliciting of CROSSROADS patrons, both commercial and parent.

Rolf Toepfer, Advisor, lent his knowledge and experience in times of need.

"TRAPEZOID STAFF"

STANDING; Rotenberg, Poze, Breese, Katz, Stalker, Critchley, Mrs. O'Donnell, Maurer. SEATED: Yellen, DeHond, Trotter, Rawcliffe, Dalton, Buff, Armstrong.

"Hard work, but worth the effort" -- a typical "TRAPEZOID" staff remark. Overtime work in the "Trap" room and early morning visits to the printer helped make "Trapezoid" a paper with the latest news.

Editor Lynn Katz supervised the publication of each issue. Mrs. Gertrude O'Donnell advised and aided the staff with their problems. Assisting Lynn were associate editors, Carin Breese and Carol Stalker; Sports editor, Jim Rawcliffe; staff photographer, Sam Trotter; circulation and exchange manager, Dorothy Yellen.

"Here's a last minute story. Find out about it and write it up. Could you have it in this evening?" The staff reporters ran into this situation frequently. With true "Trap" spirit, they scampered and scattered constantly to do their "Trapezoid" assignments.

A growing project! Since its introduction to B.H.S. in the spring of 1954, "GALAXY" has attracted an increasing amount of creative writing from Brighton students each year.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Gertrude O'Donnell, Editor Viki Graf and her assistants Lynn Kende and Alma Holt screened and processed the many "GALAXY" stories. Bonnie Armstrong, art editor, assigned and directed story illustrations.

"GALAXY" STAFF: Graf, Armstrong, Kende, Holt.

BRIGHTON HI-Y's busied themselves with numerous money-making and service projects this year. Alpha presented the annual Back-To-School Dance in the fall and sold candy and stationery to raise money. Gamma's two annual dances, the Gamma Ball and the Turkey Trot, were tremendous successes once again. The sale of basketball score cards was Delta's major project. Sigma was in charge of Hi-Y induction ceremonies and aided in the western New York Youth and Government Congress. In all, the Hi-Y's presented a well-rounded program of activities this year and were a credit to Brighton High School.

Meeting people of various nations at meetings fulfilled the name of the U.N. Club. A discussion of Russian problems by a former Russian citizen, a talk on Korea by a South Korean, and comments about their nations by teen-age diplomats informed U.N. Club members of different nations.

Recently elected officers are Diana Frumkes, Arlene Gradinger and Judy Roberts.

Betty Biscop and Claudia Sonnino were this year's teen-age diplomats at Brighton. Picked for scholarship and character qualities, these girls were sponsored by the American Field Service.

Betty, from Belgium, made her home with Barbara Noble's family, and Claudia, a native of Italy, resided with Peter Liebschutz and his family. Both Betty and Claudia found time to be active in extracurricular activities. Betty, very interested in dramatics, portrayed Lady Macbeth this spring, and Claudia was a cheerful worker for Y-Teens.

Sally Shineman, a Junior, is Brighton's sole exchange diplomat to go abroad this summer. Chosen by the A.F.S. for the same qualities which brought Betty and Claudia here, Sally is happily anticipating her coming trip to France. She feels it will be an enjoyable and immeasurable experience.

STANDING: Peter Liebschutz, Barbara Noble.

SEATED: Claudia Sonnino, Sally Shineman, Betty Biscop.

Eager to be of service, Brighton AMERICAN JUNIOR RED CROSS members completed several worthwhile projects. Under the leadership of Carol Case, participants planned the Red Cross council. Advisors, Miss Riegel and Miss Phillips, supervised making of scrapbooks for children's hospitals, Christmas Cards for the State Hospital, and candy containers for Iola Sanitarium patients.

AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS.

"Hey kids, Kruger's on television!" Another advance in the AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS program came when the corps televised a chemistry experiment from one science classroom to another. Led by president Dick Kaiser, vice presidents Mel Borisoff, Alan Lapides, and Ed Valmore, and secretary-treasurer Bill Brelsford, the A-V corps also presented movies for our noon-time entertainment.

CAMERA CLUB shutterbugs lead by Sam Trotter, president, Joe Krupka, vice-president and Cindy Hunt, secretary-treasurer learned about press cameras and newspaper photography at their Tuesday meetings. Mr. David Smith, advisor, toured with the group to Carhart's where they viewed developing and printing film and saw the new color laboratory.

Lead by President Ed Valmore, Vice President Alan Bush, and secretary-treasurer, Bill Brelsford, the RADIO ELECTRONICS CLUB is the proud owner of a radio transmitter. After instruction in radio and Morse code, many members received their amateur radio licenses.

Under the leadership of President Sue Allen, the GIRLS' ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB has enjoyed working with many of the same materials the boys use in industrial arts classes. Enameling on copper interested the members most; they also experimented with copper foil and the making of jewelry. The group, open to all girls, grades seven through twelve, met each Tuesday to complete their projects.

Scientific wizards and bomb-exploding chemistry students elected Bill Guche, president of the CHEMISTRY CLUB, Alan Bush vice president, and Carin Breese, secretary-treasurer.

Students with chemistry averages over 85 are eligible to be members. The club took a trip to Kodak to visit the paper mill and to see the actual making of photographic paper. Dr. Noyes, U. of R. professor, spoke on careers in chemistry and on the future of chemistry. Members performed demonstrations, and also revised the club constitution.

Outer space may be invaded soon by members of the class of 1961, as a result of interest aroused by a movie on guided missiles. Brighton's "junior" scientists have dissected a rat, fish, and frog, with the aid of Donald Nasca, advisor. Enthusiastic club members went on to study, under microscope, protozoan reproduction and characteristics of a fruit fly. Ending the year with incubating and watching the development of a chicken, they proved to be "scientists of tomorrow".

7TH GRADE SCIENCE CLUB. Brown, Ruda, Miss Barry, Gittler, Howard.

Miss Margaret Barry and her seventh grade science club proved at weekly meetings they could take anything apart, from sheep's eyes to microscopes. "Boris", B.H.S.' famed paper skeleton, chemical reactions, and even a bowling party were included on the club's agenda. Junior scientists closed their busy season with their own science fair here at Brighton.

Another program for the year included a movie on European schools of skiing. Several of the best skiers traveled with adviser, Mr. Chapin, to a Section V meet at Swain, and to Mt. Whitney for the Lake Placid meet. This ski team placed several times for Brighton.

Brighton High School classes seem to have a certain drive and spirit which has a unifying influence on the class members. Every year the Sophomores make a tremendous success of their money-raising drive. Every year the Juniors create an impressive Junior Prom. The teamwork and cooperation which dominates our classes is reminiscent of the function of a family unit. Thus, FAMILY becomes the introduction to the class section.

This bas-relief can be interpreted as portraying great strength and success. Our athletic teams this year have captured great honors for Brighton, thus displaying a similar strength. Our unbeaten football squad, our Section V swimming champs, and our highly successful soccer team are just a few of the Baron achievements. It is for this reason that STRENGTH is the motif of the sports section.

Under the leadership of Coach Jim Dever, the Brighton football team compiled the first perfect football season in the school's history and the first Central Western Football Conference championship since 1949. The Baron attack featured speed and aggressiveness which more than made up for the frequent weight disadvantage. The starting team consisted of Ben Kaltreider and Craig Ashton at ends, Bim Roby and Dick Whalen at guards, Don Owens and John Thomson at tackles, and Skip Hastings at center. Ken Stewart and Win Gifford started at the halfback positions, with Sam Halaby at fullback and Ron Nolte at quarterback. The entire starting team was composed of seniors. Other players who contributed greatly and will be lost via graduation are Dick Vincent, George Valkenburgh, Norm Schrader, Fred Hughes, Joe Wilson, Dick Phillips, Bob Judd, Ed Ribstein, Tim Boynton, Bill Waldorf, Bob Hansen, and Peter White.

Seniors leaving the squad this year are Carl Tallmadge, Phil Platt, Tom Price, Mike Regner, Herb Mittleman, Martin Holmes, and Chris Searles.

Although they finished with only a nine win, nine loss record, the Brighton basketball Barons showed great improvement in the course of the season. After losing four of the first five games, the team went on to capture eight out of the remaining thirteen. The Barons proved to be giant-killers as they beat Webster 49-48, thus preventing the Ridgemen from taking first place in the Class AA second half championship.

Big guns for the Barons were Ron Nolte and Gary Miller who were high scorers and leading rebounders on the team. Other frequent starters were Alan DeBraal, Dick Howk, Sam Halaby, and Roger Kitzman. Rounding out the team were seniors John Milliman and Jim Rawcliffe, and juniors Jerry Stahl, Donn DiPasquale, Perry Jacobstein, Bob Lambrix, and Brad Shapiro.

Brighton's swimming squad climaxed a perfect season by capturing the Section V Class A championship this year. This win broke Marshall High's 14-year claim to that title. In addition to this fine record, the team also finished third in a meet in Binghamton which had the strongest teams in the state as entries.

The aquatic Barons were led by Sam Hanford, who broke all records in the breast stroke, and by Tom Dalbey who proved to be an excellent free style swimmer. The other members of the star-studded squad were Stan Moress, Paul Liebhardt, Ralph Collins, Tim Boynton, Norm Schrader, Bruce Bedford, Jim Speegle, Alan Bush, Skip Hastings and Steve Levine.

Comprising the "B" League ATIT were Dick Grunert, Tim Burgess, Jim Voelzer, Paul Hahn, and Henry Applebaum.

For the first time in many years, the Brighton Volleyball Team captured the Class A Sectionals. In addition, the Marling-coached squad also won the Brighton intramural and Monroe County championships. Brighton was well represented in other sports also. Bill Jackman batted the birdie in badminton, while Sam Trotter, Len Griffiths, Al Mahar, Mel Borisoff, Phil Heckel and Paul Hahn pushed petite paddles for the Alma Mater.

Although not as large as in previous years, the leaders corps, coached by Jim Dever, gave their annual tumbling demonstration to the student body. The feats included tumbling, diving board antics, and work on the parallel bars. An added attraction was the clown skit put on by Skip Hastings, Ken Stewart, Paul Liebhardt, Ed Ribstein, and Mr. McNamara.

The 1955 baseball season saw the Barons win the eastern division championship of the Monroe County League, only to lose for the third straight time to the western division champs, Irondequoit. The Barons finished the season with an 8 win, 3 loss record.

Returning from last year's squad were infielders Ben Kaltreider, Bob Lambrich, Ken Stewart, Ed Ribstein, Shelly Mendelson, and Gary Miller, outfielders George Valkenburgh, Ron Nolte, Bob Hochstein, and catchers Don Owens and Craig Ashton. Also returning were pitchers Bill Guche, Alan Belknap, and All-County selection Sam Hanford.

Outstanding performers for the cindermen were Norm Schrader, George Heller, Win Gifford, Sam Halaby, Larry Repsher, Martin Holmes, and Chris Searles.

With all of these boys returning, the outlook for the 1956 track season was good. Others who were expected to help were Carl Tallmadge, Tom Bastian, Bob Hyder, Bob Sackett, Leo Sweeny and Jim Speegle.

With Jackman returning, the outlook for this year was good. Dave Shargel, Henry Ferris, Martin Frey, and Larry Baker were also expected to add many valuable points.

Bill Wahl, Pete Liebschutz, Don Allen, Chris Kling, Coach Marling

By winning thirteen matches in a row last year, the Brighton gold team extended their win streak to ninety-two straight wins. Their victims included East, Monroe, Pittsford, Irondequoit, Allendale, East Rochester, LeRoy, and Franklin.

With the return of Don Allen and Chris Kling this year, the chance to go over the century mark was excellent. Kling and Allen were ably assisted by Jim Rawcliffe, Al Mahar, Pete Liebschutz, and Tom Ketchum.

For the first time in several years, boys shared the job with girls of cheerleading at basketball games. Besides executing several difficult routines, they also managed to take some of the tension off the spectators during exciting games. The boy cheerleaders were Norm Schrader, John Thomson, Dick Whalen, and Pete Liebschutz.

Hail, Hail . . . the gang's all here'

On April 24, the Brighton High athletes were honored by parents, students and teachers at the annual Sports Banquet. A representative from each sport was given a chance to tell of his team's record and merits. In turn the team's coach further enlightened the laymen about that particular sport. Mr. Dever's successor at the football coaching position was announced.

Rippling Rhythms, directed by Miss Eleanor Graham and presided over by Betsy Crawford, set the stage for bigger and better water ballets. A solo feature was presented by Anne Raney and a duet performed by Sally and Betsy Crawford. Representatives from each class helped co-ordinate and present the performance.

Other tasks which keep them occupied include timing, scoring and refereeing girls' intramurals. While not official members of the corps, Sophomores work on a rotation basis and do approximately the same jobs as Junior and Senior members.
